

Will of John Stone
of Sudbury, Massachusetts

16 Apr 1683, Sudbury, Middlesex County, Massachusetts, USA

To wife Ann Stone, for life, the house where I now dwell, all moveables, six cows, a mare, swine, and poultry; also rents from my houses and lands at Sudbury, now occupied by my son Daniel Stone; at her death my dwelling house in Cambridge to go to my daughters Hannah Bent, Mary Fox, Elizabeth Stowe, Margaret Brown, Tabitha Rice, and Sarah Hill, and the remainder she leaves to be equally divided among my sons Daniel, David, and Nathaniel Stone, they to pay to my above daughters 100 pounds. My dwelling houses and lands thereto belonging in Sudbury, I give to my son John Stone, for life, to be improved for his maintenance by my son Daniel Stone, with remainder to my said son Daniel or his heirs. Wife Ann Stone to be executrix, and brethren John Cooper, Sen., and Samuel Stonem Sen., to be overseers, and executors after the decease of my wife. Proved 12 June 1683.
