ANCESTOR'S SERVICE.

"Successors. Any one shall be eligible to membership in the Society who, being of the age of twenty-one years or over, and a citizen of good name in the community, is the Social descendant of an ancestor who was at all times willing in his loyalty to, and rendered active service by, the cause of American Independence, either as an officer, soldier, seaman, marine, militiaman, or volunteer, in the armed forces of the Continental Congress, or of any one of the several Colonies or States, or as a signer of the Declaration of Independence; or as a member of a Committee of Safety or Correspondence; or as a member of any Continental, Provincial, or Colonial Congress or Legislature; or as a recognized patriot who performed actual service by every act of resistance to the authority of Great Britain."—Constitution of National Society, A. S., Article 25, Section 2, adopted June 3, 1867.

Membership is based upon one original claim; when the applicant derives eligibility by descent from more than one ancestor, and it is desired to take advantage thereof, separate applications, to be marked "Supplemental Application," should be made in each case and filed with the original.
 State fully such documentary or traditional authority as you have the following record upon, and also the residence of ancestor, with date of birth and death, if known.
 By order of the Board of Trustees, May 3, 1911, the recipient of a certificate granted on this application agrees to surrender his certificate upon failure to pay his membership fee, unless his membership shall cease by reason of death or actual disability, to be determined by the Society of which he is a member.

My ancestor's service in assisting in the establishment of American Independence during the War of the Revolution was as follows:

Enlisted for six months service, 5th June, 1780, Major Joseph Hoxney Brig. Gen. John Glover at Springfield. Age 17 years, Stature 5 ft. 3 in.
 Complexion light. From town of Hopkinton, Under command of Capt. Dix. Again passed muster Oct. 25th, 1780, under Brig. Gen. Paterson, for six months service (travel 200 miles). Again enlisted in Capt. John Hayward's Co.
 Col. Webb's regiment, time Aug. 25, 1781 to Dec. 1st, 1781. (200 miles travel home in the Hopkinton town records are the following entries:

"This may certify that John Young, the bearer hereof, late a soldier for six months in the 2nd Mass. Regiment has not drawn any article of clothing out of the public store house during his service. Robert Massy, Lt. West Point 15 Dec. 1780". Also: "Fishkill, Dec. 2, 1780. John Young, a soldier of Col. Webb's Regiment of Militia, is hereby discharged from the service he having fulfilled his time like a good soldier. Samuel Fay, Com.D.
 All commissaries are desired to furnish the above named soldier with provision on his way. Samuel Fay, Com.D". It is the family tradition that John's father Joseph was a physician and surgeon in the French and Indian Wars. Joseph's father William was a worshipper in the Old South Church, Boston, where his children were christened by Rev. Peter Thacher.
 he was one of the founders of Harrington and Nottingham, N.E. but sold all his holdings there in 1724-5.
