

HENRY CROCHERON - continued

of age. I order that my negro boy, Brom, be sold. May 1, 1798 all the remaining estate be sold and the sum of three hundred pounds to be kept at interest for my wife, ANN. All remaining monies to be divided equally among my children- John, Henry, Jacob, Daniel, Richard, Abraham, David, Reuben, and Nicholas Crocheron.

Executors- Abraham Prall, Sen.; John Housman, and my son, John Crocheron.

File # 54

Liber A p 144

June 18, 1784
Oct. 7, 1796

Benjamin
Larselore
Benjamin Swain
Richard Cole
cordwainer.

ABRAHAM MARSHALL, Richmond. To my wife, RACHEL MARSHALL, the use of all my property until my youngest child shall come of age. To my sons, John and Abraham all my wearing apparel. When estate is settled it is to be divided equally among my children, Mary, John, Martha, Abraham, Sarah, and the child that my wife is now pregnant with, share and share alike.

Executors - Benjamin Larselore & Barnt Parlesy.

File # 55

Liber A p 146

Oct. 3, 1796
Oct. 8, 1796

Gilbert Totten
Robert Leeds
Elizabeth
Johnson

JAMES LATOURETTE, Richmond. If my wife, MARY LATOURETTE, should marry she is to have one hundred pounds. If not she shall have the entire estate until death. On the death of my wife, MARY, all property is to be divided equally between all of my children- namely John, David, Stephen, James and William Stern Latourette, and my three daughters, Elizabeth, Rachel Mary and Ann Latourette.

Executors- wife Mary, son John and Ephraim Johnson.

File # 56

Liber A p 148

Nov. 17, 1796
Jan. 21, 1797

George Barnes
John Bodine
James Johnson

CORNELIUS MARTINO, Southfield, Richmond. to my wife, REBECAH MARTINO, the use of all my property until she marries or dies. Then to be sold; to daughter, Rebecca Corson, 100 pounds; and the use of a negro wench; after the death of her husband, Daniel Corson, I give said wench named Pol, to her and her heirs. To son, Benjamin, I give 50 pounds; remainder to be divided equally between Cornelius and Benjamin when they come of age.

Executors- wife, Rebecca, John Kettletas, and son, Cornelius Martino.