

Caineville

CAINEVILLE Caineville was settled in 1881 by Elijah Cutler Behunin followed by Chauncey Cook, George P. Pectol, George S. Rust, William T. Carrell and others. This log cabin was built by Mr. Behunin in the autumn of 1881, and occupied by his family of nine. Mrs. Behunin was the only white woman here the first winter. Nearby cemetery site was given by Mr. Carrell. He was the first citizen to be buried therein. Altogether there are 35. The only bishop of Caineville was Walter E. Hanks.

Site Information

Location: vic.
CAINEVILLE
WAYNE County

1 1/2 Mi. S. of Caineville

Marker Information

Placed By: Daughters of Utah Pioneers
Date Placed: 1953
Materials: Bronze
Organization: Deseret Sunset Camp DUP
Comments:
Marker Condition: Good

Monument Information

Constructed By: Daughters of Utah Pioneers
Construction Date: 1953
Organization: Desert Sunset Camp DUP
Comments:
Materials: Set stone
Dimensions (base): 4'W 5'H 2.5'D
Condition: Fair
Condition Comments: Surroundings and monument need care

Additional Information

Surveyor's Name: Loyia Rees
Surveyor's Organization: DUP Wayne County
Date Surveyed: 1995-08-11

Source: http://history.utah.gov/apps/markers/detailed_results.php?markerid=1683