Introduction

This work follows the format established in my previous work, done in collaboration with John Edwin Stringer, titled "Johnson, The Family History." That work traced the ancestry of my mother, Della Johnson, through her father, Andrew Johnson, and included all known descendants of the Swedish Johnsons. My intention when I began this current project was to do the same thing for my grandmother, Martha Matilda Marchant. It soon became apparent that there was much more information available on the Fausett and McKee families of that line, so the Marchants were abandoned in favor of the Fausetts and McKees.

The Fausett and McKee families both appear in Orange County, North Carolina, in the last half of the 1700's. There are some family researchers who believe both families came to America through Pennsylvania and then migrated south to North Carolina. I have searched the Pennsylvania records diligently and found nothing to support this theory. There were three McKees in the immigration indexes that appear probable as members of our family. Alexander and William McKee arrrived at Charlestown, South Carolina, in 1772. John Mckee arrived in North Carolina, also in 1772. A Richard Fossitt arrived in Virginia in 1739 and a John Fawcett in "America" in 1764. All of these fit chronologically with our family members but there is no proof that they are the same individuals. There are at least three Fausett lines found in Orange County, North Carolina, that so far have not been connected to our line. I have put everyone found into my database so I have over 14,000 names but only about 10,000 of them have been connected and are included in this book. Dr. Mark Faucette of Western Georgia University has a web site on his branch of the Faucettes. There are also a substantal number of African-American Faucetts, descended from the slaves of the Orange County Faucetts.

The LDS Ancestral Files carry the Fausett (Fawcett) line back to John Fawcett 1637 in the Lambton, Durham, area of Northumberland County England. I have attempted to verify these records with some success but without finding the specific references to Richard Fawcett 1714, our ancestor. I have started my numbering system with John as 1-1. Each following generation is numbered with the generation number with a dash number which is the sequence within the generation in which the individual is found in the enclosed descendancy chart. The McKee records do not go back as far as the Fausetts so I have numbered the original McKee male ancestor, M4-1, so that his descendants will match in generations with the Fausetts.

Thanks to the large families and excellent record keeping of the many Mormon Fausetts, my database has gotten so large that a detailed discussion of every individual is impractical. I have given all available details through the sixth generation of the Fausetts in the first two chapters of this book.

Chapter II "The Fausetts of Orange County, North Carolina" carries a complete record of all I know of all Fausett descendants except those of Sarah (6-3) and Richard (6-4). Then I include a chapter on the Fausett Mill and other property and a brief chapter on the history, organization and beliefs of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints (hereafter referred to as LDS).

Chapter V "The Fausetts of Tennessee" includes all I know of the descendants of Sarah (6-3) and all of Richard (6-4)'s children except John McKee (7-14), William McKee (7-15), Eliza McKee (7-16), and Amanda Armstrong (7-17).: These children are described in detail as the seventh generation, but separate chapters are included for the descendants of each of his or her descendants. Those chapters are detailed through the tenth generation but following generations are limited to details of those families for whom I was able to obtain pictures and/or biographies. The descendants of Martha Matilda Marchant are not detailed since they were covered in my previous work. Every descendant of the original Faucett and McKee who can be identified by name is included in the descendancy chart and alphabetical index. The many who are identified as "LIVING" in the LDS Ancestral File to protect the LDS privacy policy are not included.

Chapter X contains all that I have been able to find and correlate of the descendants of the original McKees of Orange County, North Carolina.

Fawsett is found with all conceivable spellings, Fossit, Faucett, Fausett, Fawsett, Facit, etc. I have used the original English spelling for those born in England. I have then attempted to standardize on Fausett for the American family. I thank my wife, Doris Dunbar, for her efforts in proof-reading this work, but all remaining errors are mine. In addition to the LDS Ancestral Files, I thank Dr. Mark Faucette, Grace Fausett Moritz, Arlene B. Meservy, Terry M. Love, Colleen Purcell, Luella H. Whyte, Betty-Joe Abraham, Gayle Ellis, Francis B. Johnson, and Mrs. Harvell Ashton for contributing substantial amounts of data for the book. If sufficient additional data and/or corrections are sent to me within the next year, I will publish an Erratum and Addendum to this book.

I THE ENGLISH FAWCETTS

JOHN FAWCETT 1-1

According to the LDS Ancestral File John was born about 1637 "of Lambton, Durham, England." This birthdate is obviously wrong based on the birthdate of his first grandchild. I estimate he was born before 1630. Only one child, Christopher (2-1), is listed.

CHRISTOPHER FAWCETT 2-1

Christopher was born about 1650 of Lambton, Durham, England. He and his wife, Dorothy, had seven children: Margaret (3-1), William (3-2), John (3-3), Thomas (3-4), Anne (3-5), Elizabeth (3-6), and Lambton (3-7). Dorothy was born about 1647 of Lambton. Christopher died 14 January 1698/1699. The LDS lists him as "gentleman."

THE THIRD GENERATION

MARGARET FAWCETT 3-1

Margaret was born 14 March 1669/70 in Chester, Cheshire, England, the first child of Christopher and Dorothy Fawcett. She married John Stevenson (gentleman) born about 1665 of Cheshire. Christopher died 14 January 1698/99.

WILLIAM FAWCETT 3-2

William was born in 1675 of West Boldon, Durham, England, second child of Christopher and Dorothy Fawcett. On 26 May 1709 he married Sara Thompson. They had four children: Christopher (4-1), Grace (4-2), Dorothy (4-3), and Joan (4-4). Sarah was born about 1679 of Durham. William was listed as "gentleman" in the LDS Ancestral File. He died 23 January 1719/20. We found his will proved 22 June 1732 in Durham.

JOHN FAWCETT 3-3

John, (our ancestor), was born in 1676 in Lambton, Durham, England, third child of Christopher and Dorothy Fawcett. He married Elizabeth Stonehewer. They had nine children: Christopher (4-5), Richard (4-6), (our ancestor), John (4-7), William (4-8), Thomas F. (4-9), Mary (4-10), Dorothy (4-11), Elizabeth (4-12), and Elizabeth (4-13). Elizabeth Stonehewer was born about 1680 and was buried 18 May 1766. John was a barrister. He was buried 9 May 1760.

THOMAS F. FAWCETT 3-4

Thomas was born about 1678 in Lambton, Durham, England, the fourth child of Christopher and Dorothy Fawcett. He also was a barrister. We found his will dated 3 March 1741. He died, apparently unmarried, sometime thereafter.

ANNE FAWCETT 3-5

Anne was born about 1680 of Durham, England, the fifth child of Christopher and Dorothy Fawcett. She married Thomas Forster of Durham about October of 1697. They had three children: Elizabeth (4-14), born about 1710; Thomasin (4-15), born about 1711; and Thomas (4-16), born about 1720. Thomas Forster is listed as "gentleman" in the LDS Ancestral File. His marriage to Anne is confirmed by the will of Thomas Fawcett (3-4).

ELIZABETH FAWCETT 3-6

Elizabeth was born in 1681 of Durham, England, the sixth child of Christopher and Dorothy Fawcett. She married the Reverend Matthew Forster in 1710 in Lic, Cheshire, England. He was born in 1677 of Cheshire, England. This marriage was confirmed by the will of William Fawcett (3-2) dated 22 May 1719. Elizabeth and Matthew had two children: Thomas (4-17), born about 1711, and Dorothy (4-18), born about 1715

LAMBTON FAWCETT 3-7

Lambton was the seventh child of Christopher and Dorothy Fawcett. He was christened 13 December 1682 and died young.

THE FOURTH GENERATION

THE CHILDREN OF WILLIAM FAWCETT (3-2) AND SARAH THOMPSON

CHRISTOPHER FAWCETT 4-1

This Christopher was born about 1710, the first child of William Fawcett (3-2) and Sarah Thompson.

GRACE FAWCETT 4-2

Grace was born about 1711 of Durham, England, the second child of William Fawcett (3-2) and Sarah Thompson.

DOROTHY FAWCETT 4-3

Dorothy was born about 1712 of Durham, England, the third child of William Fawcett (3-2) and Sarah Thompson.

JOAN FAWCETT 4-4

Joan was born about 1713 of Durham, England, the fourth child of William Fawcett (3-2) and Sarah Thompson. She married John Colville, Esquire, of White House, Jarrow, Durham, England.

THE CHILDREN OF JOHN FAWCETT (3-3) AND ELIZABETH STONEHEWER

CHRISTOPHER FAWCETT 4-5

This Christopher was born 2 July 1714 in Lambton, Durham, England, the first child of John Fawcett (3-3) and Elizabeth Stonehewer. On 29 May 1757 he married Winifred Lambert in St. Andrew, Newcastle, Northumberland, England.. They had six children: Winifred (5-1), Julia (5-2), Christina Winifred (5-3), John (5-4), Elizabeth (5-5), and Anne Mary (5-6). Winifred Lambert was born about 1717 of Newcastle. Christopher (4-5) was a barrister. He died 10 May 1795 and was buried 14 May 1795 in St. John, Newcastle, Northumberland.

RICHARD FAWCETT 4-6

This Richard (our ancestor) was born 8 Oct 1714, in England, second son of John Fawcett (3-3) (Barrister) and Elizabeth Stonehewer, both of Durham, England, according to the LDS Ancestral File. He was baptised in Green Norton, North Hampton. Richard married Elizabeth Brown about 1734 and had six children: John (5-7), Thomas (5-8), Mary (5-9), Dorothy (5-10), Elizabeth (5-11), and David (5-12) (our ancestor) born in England. The family migrated to America about 1850, possibly by way of Pennsylvania, but settling in the Hillsboro region of Orange County, North Carolina. Five more sons: Joseph (5-13), Robert (5-14), John (5-15), Samuel (5-16), and Richard (5-17) were born in North Carolina.

On 22 October 1768 Richard purchased two tracts of land on the Eno River, containing a mill, from Isaaac Low (or Love) "part of a tract of land granted to John Tinning from James Taylor by deed from Earl Granville bearing date the 14th day of March1753." He subsequently sold this property to his son, David (5-12) for the sum of 400 pounds on 24 November 1792. The LDS Ancestral File has a death date for Richard of 22 April 1782. This is obviously incorrect. The deed to David was proven in February 1808 "by acknowledgement of Richard Faucett the subscriber thereto," so Richard did not die until after that date. He also sold for twenty pounds, 275 acres of land by deed book 10 page 87, to his sons, Samuel (5-16) and Richard (5-17) on 29 August 1803. This deed allowed Richard (Sr.) "to live on as long as he lives."

In the 1781 tax list of Orange county, Richard was assessed at 4125 pounds. This ranked him at #8, well up in the list of landholders, one of whom, Alex Mebane, was top with an assessment of 8895 pounds. In the 1800 census of Orange County, North Carolina, Richard "and son" are listed with 10 slaves. The son is probably Richard (5-17). Our Richard was a fairly wealthy man by the standards of the time. Only one Richard Faucett is listed in the Orange County census of 1810. By then, Richard (6-4) had moved to Tennessee and Richard (4-6) had died leaving only Richard (5-17).

JOHN FAWCETT 4-7

John was probably born in 1716, the third child of John Fawcett (3-3) and Elizabeth Stonehewer). He was christened 15 June 1716 in Chesire, England. He never married and died in 1759. He was buried 15 September 1759.

WILLIAM FAWCETT 4-8

William was born in Newcastle, Northumberland, England, the fourth child of John Fawcett (3-3) and Elizabeth Stonehewer. He was christened 6 October 1717. He died and was buried 24 December 1746 in St. Nicholas, Newcastle, England.

THOMAS FAWCETT 4-9

Thomas was the fifth child of John Fawcett (3-3) and Elizabeth Stonehewer. He was christened 11 July 1720 in Cheshire, England. He died as an infant and was buried 22 September 1720.

MARY FAWCETT 4-10

Mary was the sixth child of John Fawcett (3-3) and Elizabeth Stonehewer. She was christened 21 July 1721 in Cheshire, England. She died as an infant and was buried 6 January 1722.

DOROTHY FAWCETT 4-11

Dorothy was the seventh child of John Fawcett (3-3) and Elizabeth Stonehewer. She was christened 20 July 1722 in Cheshire, England. She died as an infant and was buried 22 September 1722.

ELIZABETH FAWCETT 4-12

Elizabeth was the eighth child of John Fawcett (3-3) and Elizabeth Stonehewer. She was christened 11 January 1725 in Cheshire, England. She died as an infant and was buried 8 August 1725.

ELIZABETH FAWCETT 4-13

This Elizabeth was the ninth child of John Fawcett (3-3) and Elizabeth Stonehewer. She was christened 23 March 1726/27. She married Peter Bowlby LL.D. Peter was born in 1722 "of Cheshire, England." Elizabeth died in 1801.

THE FIFTH GENERATION

CHILDREN OF CHRISTOPHER FAWCETT (4-5) AND WINIFRED LAMBERT

WINIFRED FAWCETT 5-1

Winifred was born about 1760, the first child of Christopher Fawcett (4-5) and Winifred Lambert.

JULIA FAWCETT 5-2

Julia was born in 1762, the second child of Christopher Fawcett (4-5) and Winifred Lambert of Cheshire, England. She married Joseph Airey, Esquire, of Newcastle on Tyne, Northumberland.. She died 29 September 1792. Joseph was the son of Joseph Airey of Killingsworth, Northumberland, and Frances Hendry. Joseph was christened 12 December 1759.

CHRISTIANA WINIFRED FAWCETT 5-3

Christiana was the third child of Christopher Fawcett (4-5) and Winifred Lambert. She was christened 25 August 1767 in St. John, Newcastle, Northumberland, England.

JOHN FAWCETT 5-4

John was born 22 November 1768, the fourth child of Christopher Fawcett (4-5) and Winifred Lambert. He is titled "Reverend" in the LDS Ancestral File. He married Mary Anne Bates. She was born about 1772 "of Northumberland." They lived in Newton Hall, near Durham, England.

According to the LDS Ancestral File, John and Mary had nine children: John, Christopher, William, Henry, Ralph Thomas, Winifred Anne, Mary Anne, Elizabeth, and Julia. It is interesting that all the male names of this family except Christopher are found among the Fausetts of Orange County, North Carolina. These children are identified with "6-A" numbers on the descendancy chart since they were found after the ID numbers of the rest of the family had been fixed.

ELIZABETH FAWCETT 5-5

Elizabeth was born about 1770, the fifth child of Christopher Fawcett (4-5) and Winifred Lambert. She married Richard William Pierse, Esquire. William was born about 1770, "of Thimbley, Yorkshire, England."

ANNE MARY FAWCETT 5-6

Anne was christened 1 November 1771 in St, John, Newcastle, Northumberland, England, the sixth child of Christopher Fawcett (4-5) and Winifred Lambert. She married Robert Pearson, Esquire. Robert was born about 1767, "of Newcastle, Northumberland, England."

II The Faucetts of Orange County, North Carolina

According to research done by Dr. Mark Faucette of West Georgia University, there were no Fausett, Fossett, Faucet, etc. families in Orange County, North Carolina, in the 1755 taxpayers list. When our Richard (4-6) arrived shortly thereafter, there were several families of those names. There is an extensive family of Faucetts descended from William Faucett, born about 1660 in Northern Ireland. This is probably the source of stories that our Fausetts were Irish. The first of that line born in North Carolina was William's grandson, also named William, in about 1700. A Millis family history written by Fred Millis in 1944 refers to this family based on a family history written by Abisha Fawcette in 1830. I have not been able to find a copy of the latter and have not been able to find Abisha's connection to any of the older Fausetts. Fred's history is in conflict with data of the Love family history compiled by Terry Love in 1991. The wills and census data that I have found tend to confirm Terry Love's version.

There is another Faucette family descended from William F. Faucette born about 1730. His will is found in Book A p339. I believe they are the ancestors of the Millis family as claimed by Terry Love. It is interesting that that will was witnessed 20 September 1784 by David and Richard "Fossit," probably our ancestors. They were at least neighbors, if not related.

There was a William E. Faucette, born 2 August 1795 in Orange County, the ancestor of Dr. Mark Faucette. Mark has a Faucette web site at www.westga.edu/~mfaucett/index.html but has never been able to connect up to any of these other Fausett families.

THE CHILDREN OF RICHARD FAWCETT (4-6) AND ELIZABETH BROWN

Although the first six children of this family were born in England, the entire family will be discussed here. In addition to the faulty death date in the LDS Ancestral file for Richard (4-6), there is another possible discrepancy in the fact that they list Thomas (5-8) as "rector." If we believe this, he must have been left in England as a child of age 8 or thereabouts to be educated by others while the rest of the family came to America. Also there is no clue as to the fate of the three girls, Mary, Dorothy, and Elizabeth. Did they die on the ocean voyage?

JOHN (PULTNEY) FAUSETT 5-7

John was born in 1735 in Lambborn, Dunham, England, the first child of Richard Fawcett (4-6) and Elizabeth Brown. His first wife was Elizabeth Evelyn Sutton. They had two children listed in John's will: Thomas (6-1) and Polly (6-2). Elizabeth must have died before 1787 because John married Ferribee Pittman 6 February 1787 in Orange County, North Carolina. She was listed as his wife in his will of book C page 94 dated 6 March 1797 and proved May 1797. The will was witnessed by Richard and Thomas Fossett. John's brother Sam was named executor along with Thomas and Ezra Cate.

THOMAS FAWCETT 5-8

Thomas was born in 1740, the second child of Richard Fawcett (4-6) and Elizabeth Brown. He was apparently left in England to be educated by others, because he is listed as "Rector" in the LDS Ancestral File. He married Anne (Elizabeth) Portis of London and lived in Cheshire, England.

MARY FAUSETT 5-9

Mary was born about 1742 "of Cheshire, England," the third child of Richard Fawcett (4-6) and Elizabeth Brown. We have no further information on her.

DOROTHY FAUSETT 5-10

Dorothy was born about 1744 "of Cheshire, England," the fourth child of Richard Fawcett (4-6) and Elizabeth Brown. We have no further information on her.

ELIZABETH FAUSETT 5-11

Elizabeth was born about 1746 "of Cheshire, England," the fifth child of Richard Fawcett (4-6) and Elizabeth Brown. We have no further information on her.

DAVID FAUSETT 5-12

David (our ancestor) was born 29 April 1747 in Lambton, Durham, England, the sixth child of Richard Fawcett (4-6) and Elizabeth Brown. He was married about 1763 to Ellen (Eleanor) Sutton. They had four children: Sarah (6-3), Richard (6-4), William (6-5) and Abram (6-6). Ellen was born in Orange County, North Carolina, in 1745 and died before 1783. David then married Elizabeth Davis on 9 November 1783 in Orange County. Elizabeth was born in 1762 and died before February 1831 in Orange County. David and Elizabeth had three children: James Henderson. (6-7), Elizabeth (6-8) and Joseph (6-9). David died in April 1824 and is buried in the cemetery of the Old Eno Presbyterian Church in Orange County, North Carolina. David died without leaving a will and his heirs had to file a petition with the court for their inheritance. Elizabeth made her will of book E page 235 on 21 March 1825 which was proved in February 1831.

David owned and operated Faucette's mill (or Upper Mill) on the Eno River about six miles north and a little west of Hillsborough, North Carolina. David obtained the mill from his father, who deeded it to him along with two tracts of land for four hundred pounds 24 November 1792. The entire history of this mill along with information on other property owned by David is discussed in the following Chapter III. David appears in the tax list of 1780 with 22 pounds cash, 70 acres land, one horse and six head of cattle. In 1781 he lists $30 cash, 70 acres of land, two horses and three cattle. In 1783 he has 75 acres, one Negro, four horses and six cattle. In 1791 his holding has increased to 150 acres. In the 1800 census he lists nine slaves. In 1810 he is down to eight slaves, and by 1820 to five according to census figures. In 1822 David was listed as an elder of the Eno Presbyterian Church.

JOSEPH FAUSETT 5-13

Joseph was born in 1750, the seventh child of Richard Fawcett (4-6) and Elizabeth Brown. We have no further information on him.

ROBERT FAUSETT 5-14

Robert was born in 1759, the eighth child of Richard Fawcett (4-6) and Elizabeth Brown. I believe he is the Robert who was granted 350 acres of land on the head of "Panthar" Creek of Eno, adjoining land of James Paul, William Faucett and "Da." Faucett 13 March 1780. Robert's will dated 1822 lists his three sons: James (6-9a), Robert (6-9b) and William T. (6-9c). It refers to his cousins, James Faucet/miller and son of David and John Faucet/son of Henry as his executors. Neither of the executors logically fit as first cousins, but they are obviously some relation. There is some controversy on this, but on the basis of this data I have assigned Robert as a son of Richard. I also believe he is the Robert Faucet who married Ann Tudor, contrary to the opinions of some other genealogists. His will mentions that he raised William Tudor.

JOHN FAUSETT 5-15

John was born in 1761, the ninth child of Richard Fawcett (4-6) and Elizabeth Brown. He married Mary Patterson 28 December 1801 in Orange County, North Carolina. His will dated 13 October 1806 was proved November 1806. It did not list his children, but from probate records, we obtained the names: Anne (6-10), Susan (6-11), Nathaniel (6-12), and John (6-13).

SAMUEL FAUSETT 5-16

Samuel was born in 1763 in Orange County, North Carolina, the tenth child of Richard Fawcett (4-6) and Elizabeth Brown. On 11 January 1786 he married Elizabeth Durham in Orange County. Elizabeth was born about 1770, the daughter of Thomas Durham and Susannah Cates. Her younger sister, Rebecca, married Samuel's brother, Richard (5-17).

Samuel and Elizabeth had six children: Mary (Polly) (6-14), Thomas Durham (6-15), Susan (6-16), Sarah (6-17), Nancy (6-18) and John Patterson (6-19). Samuel died in May 1847 as confirmed by his will and an obituary in the Hillsborough Recorder. Elizabeth died 11 March 1860. She was living in the home of her son, John P. (6-19) in the 1860 census of Orange County. Her son, Thomas D. (6-15) inventoried her estate 22 May 1860.

RICHARD FAUSETT 5-17

This Richard was born in 1765 in Orange County, North Carolina, the eleventh child of Richard Fawcett (4-6) and Elizabeth Brown. On 19 April 1803 he married Rebecca Elizabeth Durham in Orange County. Rebecca was the daughter of Thomas Durham and Susanna Cates.

Richard and Rebecca had four children, Susannah (6-20), Nancy (6-21) Elizabeth (6-22) and Thomas Samuel (6-23). Richard died sometime before August 1828 when his will was probated. Rebecca died in 1853. Her son, Thomas S. (6-23), was administrator of her estate.

THE SIXTH GENERATION

THE CHILDREN OF JOHN FAUSETT (5-7) AND ELIZABETH SUTTON

THOMAS FAUSETT 6-1

Thomas was born about 1775, the first child of John Fausett (5-7) and Elizabeth Sutton.

POLLY FAUSETT 6-2

Polly was born in 1777 in North Carolina, the second child of John Fausett (5-7) and Elizabeth Sutton. She married Ezra Cates 2 February 1795 in Orange County, North Carolina. Ezra was the son of Thomas Cates and Elizabeth Fussell. Based on Ezra's second marriage to Eleanor Thompson, Polly died before 1819.

THE CHILDREN OF DAVID FAUSETT (5-12) AND ELLEN SUTTON

SARAH FAUSETT 6-3

Sarah was born in 1767 in Orange County, North Carolina, the first child of David Fausett (5-12) and Ellen Sutton. On 30 November 1787 she married James Trousdale. James was born in 1765, the son of John Trousdale and his wife, Elizabeth. Sarah and James had eight children: William (7-1), David Fawcett(7-2), Sarah (7-3), Elenor (7-4), Nancy (7-5), James (7-6), Elizabeth (7-7), and Jane (7-8). We know Sarah (6-3) died before 1824 based on information in the estate papers of her father, David.

RICHARD FAUSETT 6-4

Richard (our ancestor) was born in 1769 in Orange County, North Carolina, the second child of David Fausett (5-12) and Ellen Sutton. On 28 January 1792 he married Mary McKee. (M6-10). Mary was the daughter of Alexander McKee (M5-2) and Mary Baahne. Her family will be discussed in a later chapter of this book.

Richard and Mary had fourteen children: Alexander (7-9), Sarah Mariah (7-10), Eleanor (7-11), Nancy Brown (7-12), David (7-13), John Mckee (7-14), William McKee (7-15), .Eliza McKee (7-16), Amanda Armstrong (7-17), Mary McKee (7-18), Rebecca Stone (7-19), Martha Spencer (7-20), Harriet Berryhill (7-21), and Catherine (7-22).

Richard moved to Tennessee in 1800. On 27 January 1800, Alexander McKee gave two hundred acres in Sumner County, Tennessee, to Richard "Foset". Richard and Mary's son, David, was born 28 March 1800 in Orange County, North Carolina. Their next child, John McKee, was born 22 December 1804 in Gallatin, Sumner County, Tennessee. On 24 September 1807, Richard sold his two hundred acres in Sumner County to Thomas Ryan Butler for $100. Maury County was formed 24 November 1807. By 20 September 1809, Richard Fossett is found serving on a jury. His daughter, Eliza, was born in Maury County 5 July 1808. Richard purchased one hundred eighty acres on Silver Creek 19 August 1812 from Newton Cannon for $360. Alexander Faussett, son of Richard, was a witness by mark. On 12 November 1823, Richard gave his son, David, a portion of this property. He also gave his son, Alexander, fourteen and a half acres on the same date.

Richard and his siblings had to petition the court when his father, David, died without leaving a will in 1824. In the settlement, Richard had already had an advance from his father of $487.20, more than any of his other siblings. He had to advance $144.40 to share with the other siblings. On 15 January 1835 Richard sold 112 acres to his son-in-law Alex Baldridge for $1084. Other property sales made by Richard were: a slave named Jack to Patrick Maguire for $500, 50 acres to Wm. D. III THE FAUCETT MILL and OTHER PROPERTIES OWNED BY DAVID FAUCETT

The Faucett Mill was probably built by Isaac Low (or Love), a Quaker. David Faucett purchased the mill with 100 acres of land from his father, Richard, as recorded 24 November 1792 in deed book 13 page 94. The language of the deed is somewhat obscure and has been copied differently by two sources. Apparently Isaac obtained the property from John Tinning who obtained it from James Taylor. Taylor received the property from the lord proprietor, Earl Granville (John Carteret) 14 March 1753. Granville was the only one of eight lords proprietor who retained his land rights when George II acquired the land rights of all the others 25 July 1729.

Richard Faucett's deed from Isaac is dated 22 October 1768. David purchased three additional tracts, totaling 371 acres from John Haywood 15 May 1807 as recorded in deed book 13 page 93. Two of the tracts adjoined the mill property but on the west side of the Eno River as shown on the map of page 40. David subsequentlty sold 146 1/2 acres to William and James Clarke by deed book 13 page 95 on 20 January 1808. David sold another 108 acres to his son, William, by deed book 16 page 226 on 25 January 1812. The remaining 116.5 acres on the west bank of the Eno included the 77.5 acre tract #2 from John Haywood. This tract is on the west side of the Eno river, but there is no clue as to its north and south location. This is probably the tract on the west side of the Eno at Hall's Mill Road where David's son, Joseph, lived with his wife, Polly Tinnin.

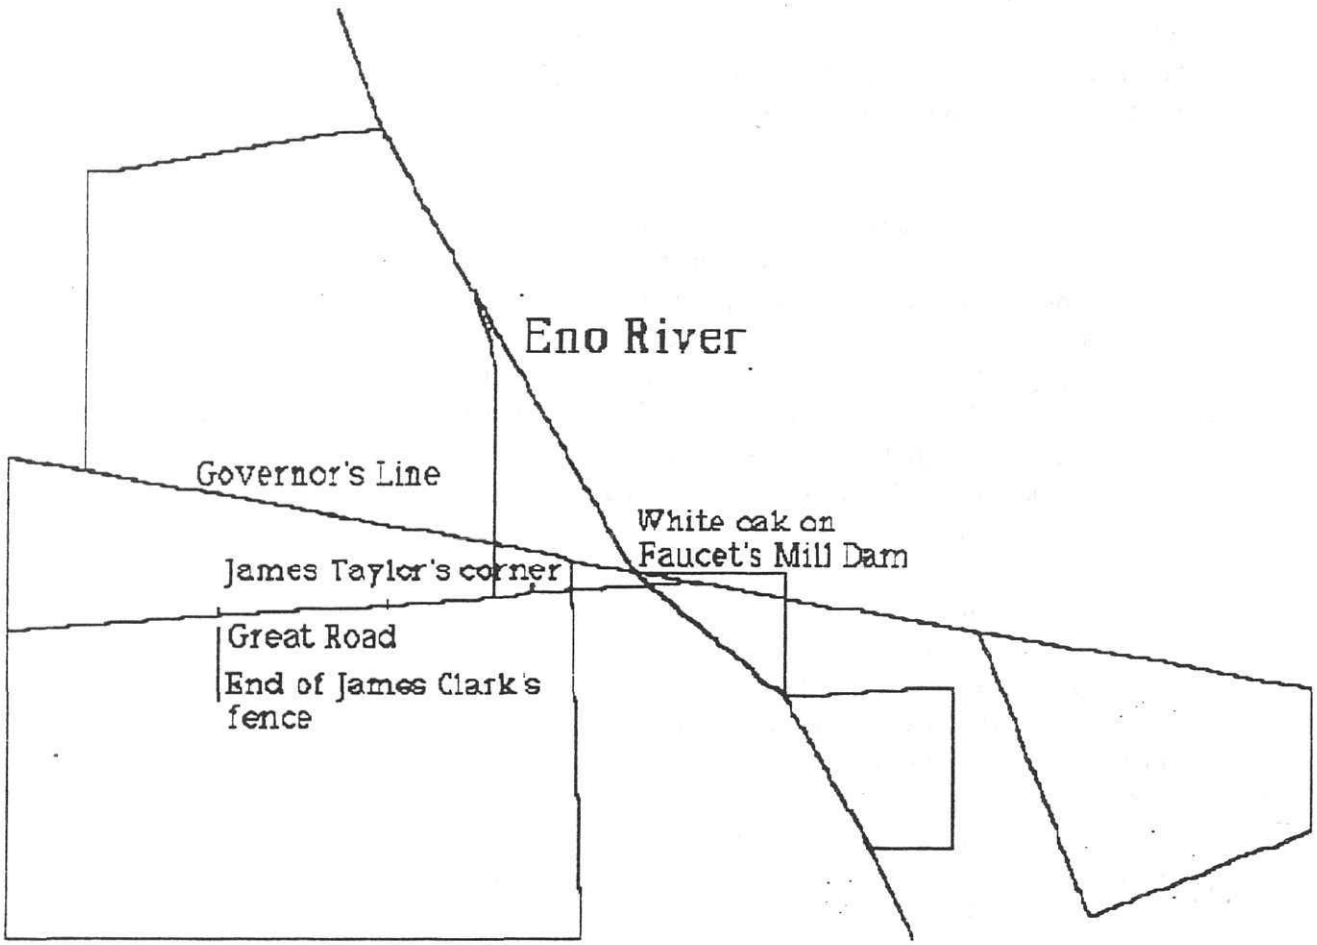

David died intestate in April 1824. His heirs filed a petition with the court asking for an order allowing them to sell the remaining land to divide the proceeds among the heirs. This was followed by a petition of David's widow, Elizabeth, requesting her dower rights in the land. Her will dated 21 March 1825 and executed February 1831 left $50 to her son, James, and all other interest in her estate to her son, Joseph. Apparently her son, James, ended up with the mill property since his widow, Elizabeth (Douglas), was listed as farming and milling in the 1860 census. Her daugher, Martha G. (Paul), filed for administration of her estate 10 July 1891. The mill property was apparently passed to the heirs of Martha's brother, Albert. F., since they sold the property to W. A.. Hall 30 November 1904 per deed book 58 page 154. The heirs were in Multnomah County, Oregon, at that time.

Hall and his wife, Mary, sold the property for $650 to E. H. Spivey on 1 April 1911 per deed book 63 page 508. Spivey and his wife, Anna Riza, sold to W. A. Collins on 9 December 1919 per deed book 77 page 239. Collins sold to W. M. Mitchell. Mitchell and his wife, Mary R., sold the property to Mrs. Margaret G. Altvater 28 January 1937. Margaret passed the property to her daughter, Kathleen A. (Wallace), 31 December 1987 by deed book 701 page 394. Kathleen in 1999 held the property as trustee of the Kathleen Barrick Altvater Trust dated 23 December 1997. According to a long time neighbor, Robert Davis, the last person to operate the mill was W. M. Mitchell in 1935.

JOSEPH FAUSETT PROPERTY

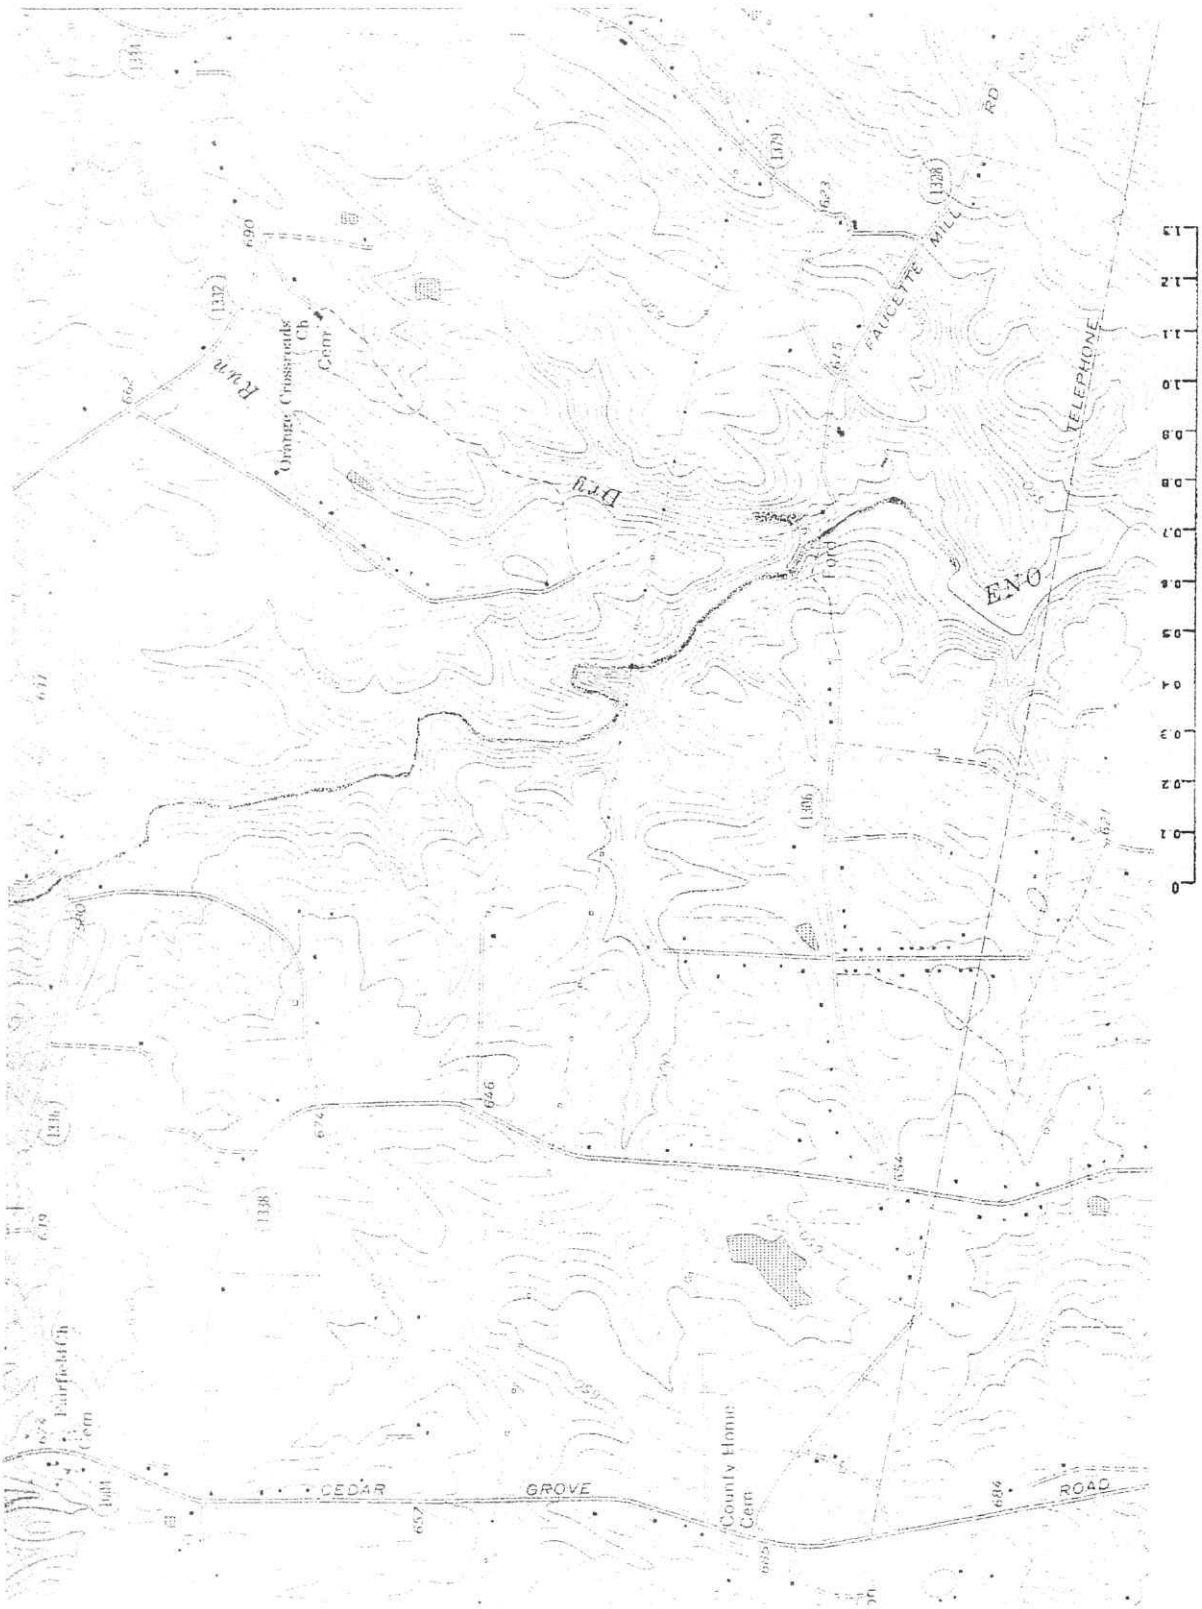

Joseph already owned 292 acres on the Eno according to the 1816 Federal District Tax List. If he retained the 116.5 acres remaining of the Haywood tracts from his father, David's, property his total holdings would come to 408.5 acres. His will dated 27 April 1868 left his "home tract " and the "Paul tract" to his wife to be passed on at her death to his son, Levi, who was "not entirely competent" with son, Robert, as agent for Levi. Another tract was divided 100 acres to Robert immediately north of his land, and 100 acres to his son, Joseph W. The remainder of his land was to be sold for payment of debts.

The Fausett house at the intersection of Halls Mill Road and the Eno River, now in the possession of Robert Golan and his wife was probably built about 1820 by Joseph Fausett (6-9) for his bride, Polly Tinnin. It was apparently on the land passed to his son, Joseph Wayne (7-47), since that Joseph's will of book J page 273 passed it to his daughter, Maude Ray (8-156). Maude was the last Fausett to live in the house. She conveyed the property to the Shearin family, but lived with them until her death in 1983.

Another house built on former Fausett property is the Chatwood, now owned by Bruce and Susan Lueck. It is the last house on the south side of Faucette Mill Road before it dead ends at the gate of the Altvater property. It was called "The Old Coach House" and served travellers on the colonial "Great Road" which forded the Eno River below the Fausett Dam. Its use as a tavern and hostelry ended about 1860. It is now the site of a world class rose garden built in the 1950's by Dr. and Mrs. Blake who named the property "Chatwood". The garden is open by appointment for tours.

IV
THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER DAY SAINTS

This chapter is included for the benefit of those of us who no longer follow the Mormon faith and may not be familiar with its history and organization. Your author's grandparents were, all but one, Mormons, so I have some family verbal history passed down, but most of the facts of this chapter were gleaned from the World Book Encyclopedia, 1958 Edition. Some data was also obtained from "Brigham Young - American Moses," by Leonard J. Arrington; "The Mormon Battalion," by Norma Baldwin Ricketts; and from "The Story of the Mormons," by William Alexander Linn. The many Fausett descendants who are still loyal members of the Mormon Church will not have to read this chapter unless they want to.

The members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, often abbreviated as LDS, are called Mormons because they believe in the Book of Mormon, which was translated by Joseph Smith from a set of golden plates revealed to him by the Angel Moroni, 21 September 1823, at Cumorah, about four miles from Palmyra, New York. The Church was established by Smith and five associates in Fayette, New York, 6 April 1830. Their basic tenet was that the established churches were unacceptable to God and the Mormons were ordained to re-establish the Priesthood of God.

Joseph Smith was a very charismatic prophet and the early organizers were very effective missionaries. The church grew rapidly but was very unpopular with all the established churches. The Mormons became subjected to persecution. By 1831, Joseph Smith had moved to Kirtland, Missouri, where he built his first temple. Other Mormons had settled at Independence, Missouri. In 1835, twelve apostles were chosen, including Brigham Young. The Mormons were driven out of Independence and established a new community at Far West, Missouri, where Joseph Smith joined them in 1838. In the fall of 1838, the "Gentiles" (non-Mormons) attacked the Mormons at the "Massacre at Haun's Mill." About twenty Mormons were killed and Smith and others were arrested. The rest of the Mormons were ordered out of Missouri and crossed the river to establish Nauvoo, Illinois. Joseph Smith and the rest of the jailed Mormons were allowed to escape and rejoin their companions. The town of Nauvoo prospered and Joseph Smith had another temple built there, but by the 1840's trouble began again when Joseph Smith's revelation allowing polygamy came about. Some of the Mormons broke with Joseph Smith and formed a newspaper which criticized him. Smith's defenders destroyed the printing plant and Smith, his brother, Hyrum, and other church leaders were arrested and jailed in Carthage, a town near Nauvoo. On 27 June 1844 a mob attacked the jail and shot both Joseph and his brother, Hyrum, to death.

Brigham Young became President of the Church after the death of Joseph Smith. In addition to being a devout Mormon, he was an able business man and diplomat. He sent his nephew, Jesse C. Little, to Washington, D. C. to negotiate with President Polk for aid from the federal government to enable the Mormons to migrate to the Great Basin and establish their "Zion". The Mormon Battalion was conceived as a result of these negotiations. General Stephen Watts Kearny was authorized to enlist "500 Mormon soldiers to go by land to California in support of the army" during the War with Mexico. This had the support of Brigham Young since he visualized these men being transported at goverment expense and their pay and clothing allowances being used to support their families and the Church. Captain James Allen USA began the enlistments at Mt. Pisgah, Iowa, 26 June 1846. At first the Mormon men were reluctant to enlist because of the poor treatment they had had from government authorities, but when Brigham explained his reasoning, the needed 500 were signed up along with twenty women as laundresses. The five companies of 100 men each were assembled and armed in Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, and left there 13 August 1846 on their historic march to the sea at San Diego, California. Not a martial shot was fired, but there were casualties from sickness and hunger. Only 240 of the battalion were mustered out in California when their one year enlistment was expired. Sixty of these chose to stay in California and six were at Sutter's Mill when gold was discovered. About 150 men in sick detachments wintered in Pueblo, Colorado, and returned to Salt Lake City. Of those, 32 chose to return to meet their families in Council Bluffs, Iowa, completing a 4000 mile round trip.

The only Fausett descendant documented as a member of this battalion was Richard T. Sanders, son of Amanda Armstrong Fausett who served in Company E. At least two husbands of Fausett descendants were in the battalion. William Alexander Follett, husband of Nancy Mariah Fausett, was a member of Company B and Henry W. Sanderson, husband of Rebecca Ann Sanders, was in Company D. George Washington Clift, husband of Amanda Caroline Fausett, was stated by his granddaughter, Ione, to have been in one of the sick detachments, but we have no documentation of this claim.

The Mormons were forced to leave Illinois and Brigham Young led the main body of the faithful to Utah. The first contingent left Winter Quarters, Nebraska, 5 April 1847 and 157 members of the pioneer company arrived in the valley of the Great Salt Lake 24 July 1847. They were joined by members of the Mormon Battalion, their families, and others making a population of about 450 persons. In September and October an additional 1500 persons arrived. Brigham returned to Winter Quarters, Nebraska, and led the next major group of 2000 Mormons to Salt Lake in 1848.

The Mormons were industrious pioneers and the colony prospered. They had little trouble with the Indians since they treated them well. The settlers applied for admission to the Union as the State of Deseret in 1849 with Brigham as governor. California's application for statehood was placed before Congress at the same time. California was accepted but Congress set up the Territory of Utah 9 September 1850 by passing the Omnibus Bill sponsored by Henry Clay. It admitted California as a free state but made no restrictions on slavery in the territories despite the Mormons' opposition to slavery. The debate in Congress was primarily on the issue of extension of slavery, but the Mormon's practice of polygamy also entered into the debate. Congress thought the name "Deseret" (taken from the word in the Book of Mormon meaning "a hive of bees") sounded too much like desert, so named the territory "Utah" after the Yute Indians who were the original occupants.

The Mormons' relations with the rest of the Union deterioriated resulting in the "Utah War" of 1857 when federal troops were sent in. Brigham avoided conflict by negotiating acceptance of the new governor, Alfred Cummings, appointed by President James Buchanan. Brigham was arrested for "lascivious cohabitation" 20 October 1871 and was in and out of court until the charges were dismissed only a few months before his death. He died 29 August 1877 at his home, the Lion House, in Salt Lake City. The Mormons abandoned the practice of polygamy in 1890 and the State of Utah was admitted to the Union in 1896.

The LDS Church is administered by the Priesthood which is divided into two parts, the Aaronic and the Melchizidek. The Aaronic consists of Priests, Teachers, and Deacons who administer the wordly affairs of the Church. The Melchizidek consists of High Priests, Seventies, and Elders who administer the spiritual affairs of the Church. The two Priesthoods are directed by General Authorities headed by the President and two Counsellors, then the twelve Apostles, the presiding Patriarch, the seven Presidents of the Seventies, the presiding Bishop and his two Counsellors. All told there are twenty-six "General Authorities." Geographically the first unit of the Church is a stake, then wards, missions, and branches. Each stake has a President and each ward has a Bishop. Mormons are traditionally tithers and have no paid clergy. I once went to a Mormon wedding presided over by the local bishop who earned his living as a dentist.

The young men are expected to go out in pairs as missionaries to spread the word. As a result, there are Mormon Churches in almost all states, much of Europe and Latin America, and some in Australia, New Zealand, and the Polynesian Islands. Part of the Mormon belief is that members are married in the temple "for time and eternity" and that their children are "sealed" into the family relationship. They also believe that persons, living or dead, not born into a "sealed " relationship for eternity, can be "sealed" into the family by a ceremony carried out in the temple. This leads to the Mormon interest in genealogy which is so valuable to the rest of us. Only a Mormon may enter a consecrated temple, but the rest of their worship and other facilities are shared generously with the public at large.

One interesting fact discovered in my research was that Brigham Young apparently thought well enough of the Fausett converts to Mormonism that he had himself sealed to Mary McKee and nine of her children: David, Eleanor, Sarah Mariah, Nancy Brown, John Mckee, William McKee, Mary McKee, Martha Spencer, and Harriet Berryhill. Brigham obviously never met Mary McKee since she died before the LDS Church was established. Those siblings not sealed to Brigham Young were Alexander, the first son, who stayed in Tennessee, Eliza McKee, Amanda Armstrong, Rebecca Stone, and Catherine. It is easy to explain the absence of Alexander and Catherine, who probably stayed in Tennessee, but one wonders about the exclusion of Eliza, Amanda, and Rebecca, who all went to Utah and raised large families.

The Mormons are unique among the established religions in their support of the poor and unemployed of their membership. Each Mormon family is expected to keep a reserve of food for its own emergencies. The church has a welfare program for those less fortunate. Members are expected to donate to this program, but the recipients of this generosity are expected to work in the ward as directed by the bishop when, or if, they are able.

THE SEVENTH GENERATION

CHILDREN OF SARAH FAUSETT (6-3) AND JAMES TROUSDALE

WILLIAM TROUSDALE 7-1

William was born in 1792 in North Carolina, the first child of Sarah Fausett (6-3) and James Trousdale. About 1830 he married Mary Ann Bugg, apparently in Tennessee, since all their children were born in that state. Mary Ann was born in 1811 in Virginia. Thir children were: Yolena (8-1), Charles William (8-2), Augustus (8-3), and Francis (8-4). The family was in Sumner County, Tennessee, in the 1850 census.

Elenor was born about 1802, the fourth child of Sarah Fausett (6-3) and James Trousdale. She married William Porter.

NANCY TROUSDALE 7-5

Nancy was born about 1803, the fifth child of Sarah Fausett (6-3) and James Trousdale. She married Filmore A. Crisp.

Elizabeth was born about 1806, the seventh child of Sarah Fausett (6-3) and James Trousdale.

JANE TROUSDALE 7-8

Jane was born about 1808, the eighth child of Sarah Fausett (6-3) and James Trousdale.

CHILDREN OF RICHARD FAUSETT (6-4) AND MARY MCKEE (M6-10)

Richard Fausett (6-4) moved his family to Sumner County, Tennessee, following his father-in-law, Alexander McKee, who gave Richard 200 acres of land. By 1807, Richard had sold his land in Sumner County and moved to the newly established Maury County. By the 1820 census he was in Marshall County, which was formed from part of Maury County. All of Richard's family will be discussed here although some were born in Orange County, North Carolina.

ALEXANDER FAUSETT 7-9

Alexander was born in 1793 in Orange County, North Carolina, the first child of Richard Fausett (6-4) and Mary McKee (M6-10). On 25 April 1816 he married Jane Park in Maury County, Tennessee. Jane was born 29 July 1797 in Maury County, the third child of Samuel Park and Jane Thompson. Her sister, Margaret, married Alexander's brother, David, and her sister, Polly, married James McKee (M6-20), a cousin of Mary (M6-10), so the three families were heavily intermarried.

Alexander and Jane had eight children: Richard Park (T.) (8-13),William Newton (8-14), Sally M. (8-15), Andrew F. (8-16), David T. (8-17), James (8-18), Samuel M. (8-19), and Joseph D. (8-20). Alexander lived in Marshall County, Tennessee, at least until 1837. He died in December 1858 in Polk County, Missouri. Alexander was one of five Fausett siblings not sealed to Brigham Young.

SARAH MARIAH (SALLY) FAUSETT 7-10

Sarah was born in 1795 in Orange County, North Carolina, the second child of Richard Fausett (6-4) and Mary McKee (M6-10). In 1811 she married James Pursell in Maury County, Tennessee. James was born in 1795 in Orange County. They had three children: Benjamin Franklin (8-21), Mary Ann (8-22), and Sarah (Sallie) (8-23). James died 22 October 1821 in Maury County. On 5 September 1823 Richard Fausett was allowed funds by the court for maintenance of James' minor heirs. By 1829 Sarah had married Allen Waddell. Sarah was one of the Fausett siblings sealed to Brigham Young.

ELEANOR (ELLEN) FAUSETT 7-11

Eleanor was born 23 March 1797 in Orange County, North Carolina, the third child of Richard Fausett (6-4) and Mary McKee (M6-10). In 1813 she married Alexander Baldridge in Orange County. Alexander was born 25 July 1792 in Orange County. Eleanor and Alexander had two children, Isabella (8-24) and Nancy (8-25). Eleanor died before 1819 and Alexander married her sister, Nancy Brown Fausett (7-12). Eleanor was one of the Fausett siblings sealed to Brigham Young.

NANCY BROWN FAUSETT 7-12

Nancy was born 23 June 1799 in Orange County, North Carolina, the fourth child of Richard Fausett (6-4) and Mary McKee (M6-10). On 29 October 1819 she married Alexander Baldridge in Maury County, Tennessee. Nancy and Alexander had five children: Mary E. (8-26), born about 1820; Sara F. (8-27), born about 1822; John Alexander (8-28), born 23 July 1826; William R. (8-29), born 5 December 1830; and Isaac W. (8-30), born in 1832. Nancy died 1 August 1846 in Maury County. Alexander had died by 14 February 1854 when Samuel M. Neeley was granted a settlement as guardian of Isaac (8-30). Nancy was one of the Fausett siblings sealed to Brigham Young.

DAVID FAUSETT 7-13

David was born 28 March 1800 in Orange County, North Carolina, the fifth child of Richard Fausett (6-4) and Mary McKee (M6-10). On 23 May 1820 he married Margaret Matilda (Peggy) Park. Margaret was born 20 March 1802 in Maury County, Tennessee, the fifth child of Samuel Oark and Jane Thompson. David and Peggy had nine children: Mary Jane (8-31), Caroline Matilda (8-32), William Thomas (8-33), Fidilia Ann (8-34), Cordellia (8-35), Sarah Frances (8-36), Nancy Emline (8-37), Andrew Newton (8-38), and Margaret Elizabeth (8-39). Peggy died 20 August 1840, shortly after the birth of her last child, Margaret. On 29 September 1841 David married Rhoda Hughes in Marshall County, Tennessee. Rhoda was born in 1806 in Tennessee. In the 1850 census, David and Rhoda are found in Fayette County, Tennessee, with five of his children and his stepmother, Anne.

David died 12 September 1870 in Tennessee. He was buried in Marshall County. David was one of the Fausett siblings sealed to Brigham Young. This seems rather remarkable since Brigham probably never met him.

JOHN MCKEE FAUSETT 7-14

John was born 22 December 1804 in Gallatin, Sumner County, Tennessee, the sixth child of Richard Fausett (6-4) and Mary McKee (M6-10). On 10 November 1821 he married Margaret Smith in Maury County, Tennessee. Catherine (8-40) died a day later and John married Catherine's aunt, Martha Spencer Fausett (7-20), on 9 February 1845 in Nauvoo, Hancock County, Illinois. This family will be discussed later in a separate chapter

ELIZABETH ANN FAUSETT 8-41

Elizabeth was born in August 1824 near Columbia, Maury County, Tennessee, the second child of John McKee Fausett (7-14) and Margaret Smith. She married a Smith and died about 1842.

AMANDA CAROLINE FAUSETT 8-42

Amanda was born 8 August 1827 in Duck River, Maury County, Tennessee, the third child of John McKee Fausett (7-14) and Margaret Smith. On 9 July 1840 she married George Washington Clift in Nauvoo, Hancock County, Illinois. George was born 24 February 1817 in Maunie, White County, Illinois, the son of George Washington Clift, Sr. and Lovia (Lettie) Farley. George and Amanda had eleven children: William (9-50), Eliza Jerusha (9-51), Lovia Ellen (9-52), George Alexander (9-53), Amanda Jane (9-54), Alzina (9-55), John Edward Farley (9-56), Mary Maria (9-57), Madora (9-58), Violet (9-59), and Francis Eugene (9-60).

George had an interesting background. His father, George Washington, Sr. had disappeared on a trip west and was married. The couple was said to have had a son named George Washington Clift after his father. The family searched for the boy and "brought him back to be educated and to inherit what was rightfully his," states the Mormon historical write-up. While at home, he overheard an aunt ask what proof they had that the boy was theirs. "Maybe he is just some bastard child who would like to inherit your money." The boy was hurt at this, and ran away. He became a stow-away aboard one of the ships going south where he was reunited with his mother. "He didn't like his step-father, so left that home and became a seaman, working aboard various boats plying the Mississippi, Ohio, and Wabash Rivers."

According to Della Dunbar, mother of the author, most of the family felt that Amanda was "hoity-toity" because she had supposedly come from "Southern plantation stock." We then wonder how she and her husband met and about the other circumstances of their relationship....We'll never know!

After the two were married, he went back aboard ship and it was about three years before they lived together and had their first child four years later.

George's granddaughter, Ione, reports that "he went back and forth" with the Mormons and at Council Bluffs, Iowa, was taken into the Nauvoo Militia of the Mormon Battalion which marched from there to Santa Fe or Taos, New Mexico. He was ill and could not go on to California, so returned to Council Bluffs or Salt Lake City, where his wife was staying. Another report, believed to be an official LDS church document, states that he and his family started for Salt Lake City in June 1846, leaving Illinois. They stopped at Council Bluffs and stayed four years. They arrived in the Salt Lake Valley 5 October 1850 with John Moon's Company. They arrived in Provo, Utah, on 7 October and later moved to Alpine, where they were found in the 1860 census. They moved to Provo Valley 27 April 1863, to the upper settlement on Snake Creek (known today as Midway).

Ione said that "the money from the men of the Mormon Battalion who didn't get to California was collected and used to buy the fort at what now is the city of Ogden, Utah." Another story she tells is that George was a bodyguard for Joseph Smith. One day he was chopping wood in his yard and Joseph came riding up on a horse, jumped off, and said,"get on and ride for the river!" George did so while Joseph hid behind the wood pile. When George got to the river he was caught by three riders who threw him off his horse, looked at him, and said,"That isn't him. the GD prophet got away again."

George died 5 September 1895. Amanda died 11 September 1906. Both died in Midway, Wasatch County, Utah, and are buried in the Midway Cemetery.

They rented until 1885 when Felix filed on a homestead two miles south of town. They started with a one room rock house which was enlarged as their family grew. The house was heated by a wood burning fireplace and a cook stove. Felix had been wounded in the Mexican War and carried a bullet in his hip which hindered his work. His wife and sons often had to do the farm work with some help from the neighbors. Felix started an apple orchard on his property which was quite successful. ALZINA CLIFT 9-55

Alzina was born 29 August 1856 in Provo, Utah County, Utah, the sixth child of Amanda Caroline Fausett (8-42) and George Washington Clift. On 27 December 1872 she married William Brandon. William was born about 1856 in Alpine, Utah County, Utah. He got into trouble with the law and the marriage was anulled. Alzina then married David Cluff Marchant on 27 December 1873 in Midway, Wasatch County, Utah. David was born in Essex, Yorkshire, England, 14 January 1841, son of John Marchant and Martha Cluff. His grandfather, also a David Marchant, a Huguenot, had fled France to England because of the French persecution of the country's Protestants. The younger David, according to our records, came to the United States in 1846.

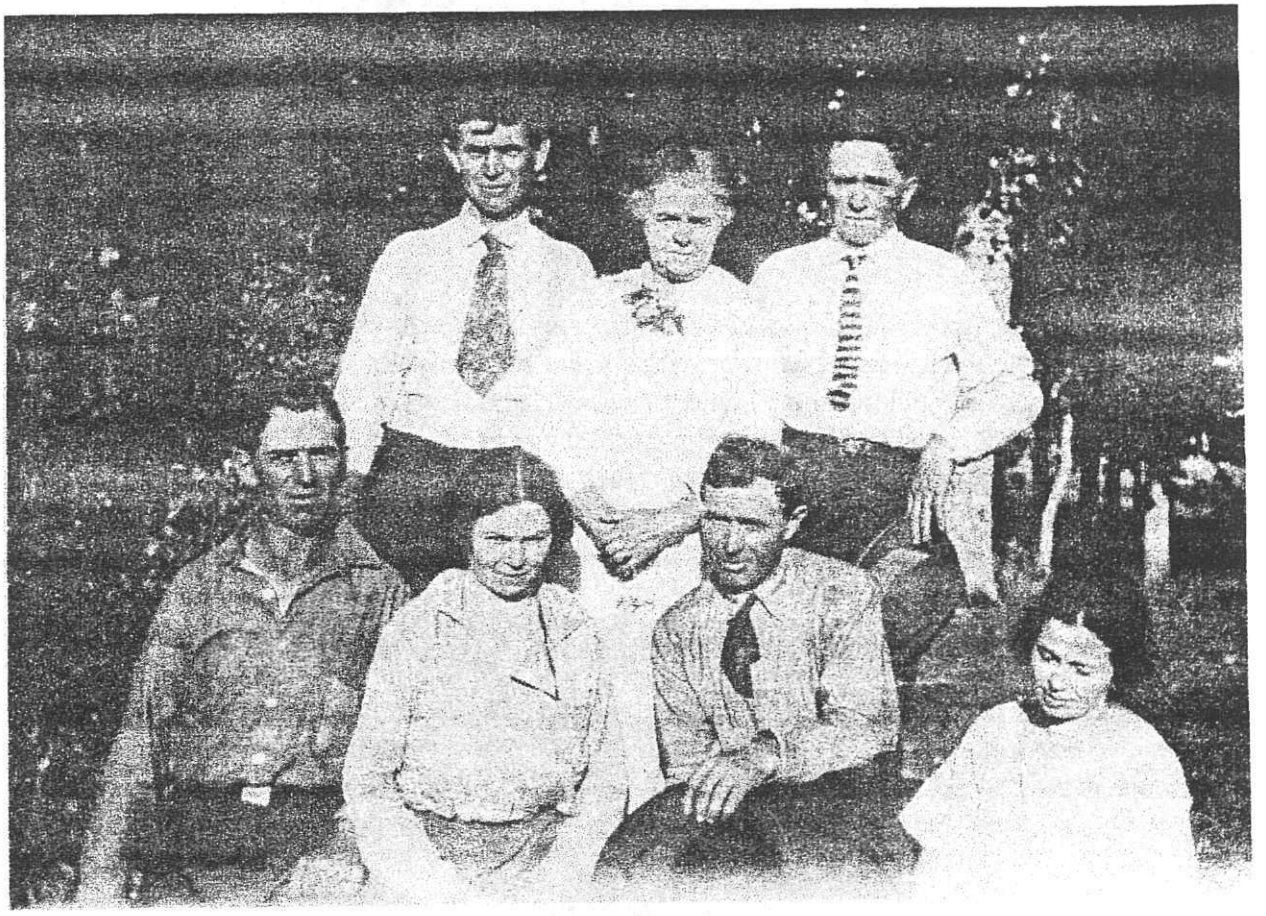

According to Della Johnson Dunbar, granddaughter of Alzina, David was "bitten by the silver prospecting bug" and spent a good part of his time roaming the high Wasatch Mountains looking for an ore vein that would make him rich. David and his partners discovered a vien of silver and tried to file a claim on it. (We believe this might have been in the Park City area). David left his partners to guard the claim while he went to register it. The partners were shot and the outcropping of ore claimed by the murderers. Nothing could be proved. It turned out to be one of the richest mines in the world, according to Della.

Aunt Ione (Alzina's daughter who was only four years older than Della) recorded a story that Alzina was carried off by Indian squaws while a group of women was picking berries. She was returned three days later, according to the story, when the chief found out that she was the daughter of George Washington Clift. They knew him as an officer in the army defending the area at the time in Alpine, Utah, and respected him.

Alzina fell from a horse and broke her leg when she was a small child. She was crippled because of the injury. Her father set the bone as best he could with no doctor within miles of the place of the accident. Later, the leg had to be broken and reset to mend properly. Her granddaughter, Della, said Alzina developed a tubercular condition of the bone and this caused severe pain and stunted the growth of the leg.

Alzina and David had nine children: David John (10-55), Stanley (10-56), Martha Matilda (10-57), Amanda Caroline (10-58), Elmer Cluff (10-59), Henry Sterling (10-60), Alice Laurel (10-61), Rebecca Ione (10-62), and Eunice L. (10-63). The family lived in a small three-room log house on a plot of land half a block in area in Heber, Utah. They had a cow, pigs, chickens, fruit trees and a vegetable garden that produced a major part of their food. Alzina cooked, cleaned, mended, nursed, taught and trained and generally cared for all the needs of her family plus others, including an aged mother. She helped bring her 18 grandchildren into the world and assisted others in the neighborhood and church.

Alzina later moved to Park City, Utah, to make a home for Elmer and Sterling, who were working in the mines there to support the family. Della said that her grandfather stayed on in Heber for a time to act as a guide and reader for Cory Hanks, the injured brother of Stanley's wife. Cory had both hands mangled and his eyes injured by an explosion in a mine, but went on to graduate from Stanford University. He lectured at schools and colleges across the country.

The family all went to Idaho when the Minidoka reclamation project opened up near Burley. They bought 80 acres of irrigated land. Elmer later homesteaded another 80 acres and Sterling bought another 80 acres after returning from World War I. Robert Dunbar, Jr. remembers visiting the farm starting when he was about four. He says he was allowed to follow the threshing machine through the field and swim in the irrigation ditch.

"Alzina was a small woman, just over five feet tall, not beautiful in face and form," Della wrote, "but with that inner beauty that shows in persons with a beautiful spirit and a compassionate and understanding heart. She had dark brown hair and expressive hazel eyes, with a broad, Dutch jaw, which gave her face a heavy look, especially above her small frame. Her heritage was Dutch, Irish and English, but she looked more Dutch than anything." Alzina was raised in the Mormon church and was faithful and devout. She had "moral and physical courage" in spite of the painful episodes with her injured leg.

The sons in Alzina's family helped with the support of the family, especially after their father's death 6 January 1913 in Burley, Cassia County, Idaho. Also, Alzina worked as a practical nurse, had boarders, and did sewing for people. She cared for her sister's infant son after her sister's death, besides a brother, who was having family problems, and his three sons . Her eldest son brought his family to her when there was trouble at his home, and a daughter came home when she was widowed with two young children.

Della adds that Alzina had a keen sense of humor with an ability to laugh at herself and make light of her worries. She had a talent for mimicry and could make a story interesting and fun. She was still working hard and making a home for two sons on the farm when she was 80 years old. When she was 86, she fell and broke her hip and lay for six months in agony before she died. She died April 16, 1943 in Burley, Cassia County, Idaho, where both she and her husband, David, are buried..

THE EIGHTH GENERATION

CHILDREN OF WILLIAM MCKEE FAUSETT (7-15) AND MATILDA CAROLINE BUTCHER

NANCY MARIAH FAUSETT 8-58

Nancy was born 29 July 1827 in Columbia, Maury County, Tennessee, the first child of William McKee Fausett (7-15) and Matilda Caroline Butcher. On 29 September 1845 she married William Alexander Follett in Nauvoo, Hancock County, Illinois. William was born 11 November 1825 in Shalersville, Portage County, Ohio, the son of King Follett and Louisa Tanner.

Nancy and William had thirteen children: William King (9-92), Warren King (9-93), Issac Alfred (9-94), Louinda (9-95), Louisa (9-96), William Lamoni (9-97), John (9-98), Joseph Edward (9-99), Lyman Leander (9-100), Nancy Ann (9-101), Sarah Mariah (9-102), Anna Eliza (9-103), and Hyram (9-104).

An extensive biography of William Alexander Follett was written by Robert Keith Bryce in 1997. A few pertinent details are repeated here. William was 18 years old when his father was killed in an accident in Nauvoo. William enlisted in Company B of the Mormon Battalion and was one of those who fell sick and returned to their families, arriving back in Council Bluffs, Iowa in September 1847. William and Nancy with three young sons left Iowa to travel to Utah in 1851 or 1852. They settled in Provo, where the rest of their children were born.

In April 1855 William was called to join a group of thirty men to settle Las Vegas, then in the Territory of New Mexico. The family returned to Provo on completion of the mission. William was bishop of Provo fourth ward until 1875. In 1877 the Follett family was called by Brigham Young to help in the settlement of Arizona. Their first home was found to be on an Indian Reservation, so they moved to Pima in December 1882. William died 21 October 1885 in Pima. Nancy died there 1 April 1886. Both are buried in Pima..

Narcissa was born 12 March 1830 in Columbia, Maury County, Tennessee, the third child of William McKee Fausett (7-15) and Matilda Caroline Butcher She was engaged to Isaiah Jones Barkdoll. Isaiah was born about 1830 in Columbia. He died in 1845 before they married, but was sealed to her in the LDS Church. Mildred Fausett Ellis wrote a sketch of the life of Narcissa in 1988. Pertinant portions are repeated as follows: When Rebecca, as she was called, was to be sealed in the church, a friend, Cornelius Peter Lott, was asked to be the proxy for Barkdoll. He agreed and asked Rebecca to be sealed to him for this life. The parents agreed. Rebecca did not discover this until after the ceremony on 22 January 1846. She considered it her duty to respect the sealing and lived with Cornelius for a few months before returning to her parents.

On 12 November 1846, her son, Isaiah Bardoll Lott (9-105) was born. When the boy was three to four years old, she left him with her parents and went to work with her sister, Harriet, at an Indian school near Council Bluffs, where she met a well educated Indian, Louis Saunsoci. Louis was born 23 May 1829 in the Nebraska Territory, son of Franklin Saunsoci and an Omaha

Indian. Rebecca married Louis 7 March 1850 in Pottawattami County, Iowa. They had three girls: Susan Amelia (9-106), Prudence Matilda (9-107), and Rozelle Rebecca (9-108).

Louis and Rebecca, with their first child, crossed the plains to Utah in the 3rd company of Captain Thomas C. D. Howell. They followed Rebecca's parents to Provo. In 1851 Louis was called to Washington D. C. to act as interpreter for a treaty between his Omaha Tribe and The U. S. Government. After the treaty was signed, Louis returned to his tribe and married a woman named Lucy. Rebecca's son, Isaiah, helped his mother raise his three half sisters. Rebecca died 19 April 1884.

Harriet had very little opportunity for schooling. She lost her two front fingers down to the knuckles when her sister accidentally hit her while chopping wood. On 10 February 1853 she married James Addison Bean in Provo, Utah County, Utah. James was born 11 March 1834 in Mendon, Adams County, Illinois, the son of James Bean and Elizabeth Lewis.

He would be away for three months at a time leaving Harriet to care for the family. He later became a farmer and stockman and became quite wealthy for those times. Harriet, despite her handicapped hand, was an excellent seamstress. She was an accomplished gardener, raising flowers, vegetables, and fruit trees. She also took care of illnesses with herbs and other pioneer medicines.

James and Harriet celebrated their golden wedding anniversary 10 February 1903 at a surprise party hosted by their youngest daughter, Goldia Fern. This was a rare accomplishment in those days. Arlene was born 20 August 1925 in Teton, Fremont County, Idaho, the second child of Lloyd James Bean (10-152) and Millie Birch. Arlene grew up with a love for the out-of-doors and being with her Dad. She learned to do all there was to do on the farm and acted as her father's right hand. Often she wished she had been born as a boy! Her first school was in Drummond, Idaho. Her father drove the children, including some neighbors, ten miles to school every day. In winter they had to use a horse drawn sleigh equipped with a wood burner for warmth. Her father kept his hand on its lid in case the sleigh tipped over. Later a one room log school house was built about a mile and a half from their home where Arlene finished the eighth grade. This building had a pot bellied wood stove and an outhouse 200 feet away.

Arlene's parents moved to a small farm in St. Anthony, Idaho, about thirty miles away, so their children could have access to a high school education. The children all worked hard on the farm to help ends meet, but, with loving parents, never realized how poor their family was.

Arlene graduated from high school and went to the LDS Hospital in Idaho Falls to study nursing during World war II. She became an R.N. and worked in Idaho Falls and then in Logan, Utah. She decided to accept a call to a mission for the LDS Church in Mexico and Guatemala, where she served for two years. Her parents paid all her expenses while she was on the mission. When she returned home to Utah, she went to work in Provo where she met Keith Hansen Meservy. They were married in the Temple in Logan, Utah, 27 December 1951.

two children were born in Baltimore. While they lived in Baltimore, Arleen developed her interests in genealogy. Many of her parent's ancestors were born in Maryland and other southern states.

The last two children were born in Provo, where Keith accepted employment in the Religion College of Brigham Young University. All of the children were married in the LDS Temple and, as of 1994, Arleen and Keith had sixteen grandchildren. Keith retired from teaching in 1990 and the family built a cabin in the mountains east of Provo. As of the year 2000, they were both still enjoying retirement.

Her family lived on a dryland farm with no indoor plumbing or electricity for fifteen years before moving to St. Anthony. Karma and her sisters skied to a one room school house in the winter. In 1946 her parents bought a farm in Jameston, Idaho, near Shelly. Karma graduated from Shelly High school as salutatorian. After clearing the land, digging irrrigation ditches and installing an irrigation well they sold the farm and moved back to Jameston in 1960. They moved to Ammon in 1961 and in March 1970 bought a farm north of Idaho Falls.

THE TENTH AND FOLLOWING GENERATIONS

The Sanders family was so prolific and kept such good records that there are far too many of them to attempt a detailed discussion in the format of this book. I have found four hundred eighty-six members of the tenth generation and eleven hundred nine of the eleventh generation. Moses Martin Sanders, Jr. has the record with three wives and thirty-one children. All descendants found are listed in the index and descendancy charts. There is a book called "The Sanders Saga" available in the LDS library in Salt Lake City for those interested in more detail on this family.

X
THE NON-FAUSETT DESCENDANTS OF THE MCKEES

In order to match generations with the Fausetts, numbering of the McKees starts with a theoretical McKee (M4-1), father of the three brothers found in Orange County, North Carolina. Alexander and William McKee arrrived at Charlestown, South Carolina, in 1772. John Mckee arrived in North Carolina, also in 1772. We believe these are our McKees, but there is no proof.

We found two useful McKee web sites on the internet, one hosted by Cara Franklin, and one hosted by Kevin McKee.

WILLIAM MCKEE M5-1

William was born about 1745 in Ireland. His wife was Mary (Polly) Rankin. They were probably married in Ireland and at least one of their children was probably born there if their date of entry to America is correct. William left a will in Book E page 32 in Orange County, North Carolina, which lists his wife (as Dolly) and children. Their children are: Ann (M6-1), Rankin (M6-2), Victory (M6-3), William Jr. (M6-4), James (M6-5), Elizabeth (M6-6), Polly (M6-7), and David R. (M6-8). William McKee was listed as head of a family in the 1790 census of Hillsborough District, Orange County, North Carolina, with no details. In 1800 he is listed with his wife, four sons, but only three daughters. By 1820 he is down to three sons and one daughter at home. William died in 1823. His wife, Polly, died in 1832. Both died in Orange County.

ALEXANDER MCKEE M5-2

Alexander (our ancestor) was born in 1750 in Ireland. He married Mary (Bean) Baahne in 1770 in Ireland. Mary was born 11 June 1746 in Germany. Our family legend is that the two of them could nor even converse in the same language when they were married. At least one of their children was probably born in Ireland if Alexander's date of entry to America in 1772 is correct. They had fourteen children: John (M6-9), Mary (M6-10) (our ancestor), William (M6-11), Alexander, Jr. (M6-12), Jacob (M6-13), Sarah W. (M6-14), Thomas Mervin (M6-15), Nancy (M6-16), Catherine (M6-17), Jesse (M6-18), Elizabeth (M6-19), James (M6-20), Robert (M6-21), and Samuel (M6-22).

The earliest record of Alexander McKee in Orange County, North Carolina, was 13 March 1779 when he and John McKee purchased 239 1/2 acres on the Eno River from James Anderson for 450 pounds. A John McKee was on the tax list for 1779, but Alexander does not appear until 1780 when he had 26 pounds cash, 230 acres, one horse and nine head of cattle. By 1781 he owns 368 acres, and three mares. He and John in company own one dollar cash, 230 acres, three horses and 11 cattle. William's first appearance on the tax rolls was in 1779.

On 5 October 1785, E. Harris surveyed two tracts, one of 1500 acres and one of 1000 acres granted to Alexander McKee by a land warrant in the Western Districts dated 25 May 1784. In 1795 Alexander bought two hundred acres in Sumner County, Tennessee, from Robert Campbell. On 22 June 1795, Alexander bought two hundred twenty acres on the Enoe River in Orange County, North Carolina, from Thomas O'Neill.

It appears that only twenty years after Daniel Boone blazed the trail through the Cumberland Gap, Alexander followed in his footsteps and settled in Sumner County, Tennessee, near Gallatin just north of Nashville. On 27 January 1800, Alexander gave a gift of two hundred acres in Sumner County to Richard "Foset", husband of his daughter, Mary, out of 640 acres on which he was living. John and William McKee (probably sons of Alexander) are witnessses. By 1803 Alexander was in debt and taken to court by Benjamin Bashaw. The next record found of Alexander McKee was his service on a jury in Maury County, Tennessee, 25 September 1815.

Mary (Bean) died 3 August 1822 in Maury County, Tennessee. Alexander apparently died between 1830 and 1840 in Maury County based on census records of his son, James.

JOHN MCKEE M5-3

John was born about 1755 in Ireland. As previously stated we believe he came to North Carolina in 1772, possibly by way of Philadelphia. He was on the Orange County, North Carolina tax list of 1779 after buying property jointly with his brother, Alexander. John's wife was named Catherine based on his will of book D page 160 dated 20 August 1805 and proved in November 1805. His will lists three children: John (M6-23), Elizabeth (M6-24), and Mary (M6-25). This is confirmed by the 1800 census of Orange County which lists John with a wife and a son and two daughters, all three children less than ten years old.

CHILDREN OF WILLIAM MCKEE (M5-1) AND MARY RANKIN

ANN MCKEE M6-1

Ann was born about 1765, probably in Ireland, the first child of William McKee (M5-1) and Mary Rankin. On 7 January 1783 she married Robert Anderson in Orange County, North Carolina. Her second husband was Levi Ward, whom she married 13 June 1822 according to the marriage records of Tryon and Lincoln County, North Carolina.

RANKIN MCKEE M6-2

Rankin was born 7 September 1772, the second child of William McKee (M5-1) and Mary Rankin. On 7 March 1807 he married Lydia Ray in Orange County, North Carolina. Lydia was born in 1783 in North Carolina, the daughter of John and Sally Ray. Lydia and Rankin had ten children: Sarah (M7-1), David B. (M7-2), William A. (M7-3), Horatio Nelson (M7-4), John R. (M7-5), Margaret (M7-6), Mary J. (M7-7), Joseph W. (M7-8), Ann (M7-9), and Elizabeth (M7-10). The first nine children were found in court records after Rankin died 3 August 1835 in Orange County, without leaving a will. Elizabeth was found in the 1850 census of Orange County, North Carolina. Lydia died in Orange County in 1851.

VICTORY MCKEE M6-3

Victory was born about 1774, the third child of William McKee (M5-1) and Mary Rankin. On 24 January 1794 she married David Boring in Orange County, North Carolina.

WILLIAM MCKEE, JR.. M6-4

There is much controversy and confusion between this William and his cousin, William (M6-11), son of Alexander (M5-2), who married Jane Jamison and had a large family all born in Tennessee. William Jr. is listed clearly in the 1810 census of Orange County, North Carolina, with a wife but no children which agrees with the data presented below.

William was born about 1777 in Orange County, North Carolina, the fourth child of William McKee (M5-1) and Mary Rankin. On 18 December 1802 he married Catherine McKnight in Sumner County, Tennessee. Catherine was born in 1784 in North Carolina, the daughter of John and Margaret McKnight. William and Catherine evidently returned to North Carolina where William owned property jointly with his brother, James. William Jr. was counted in the 1810 census. He cannot be identified in the 1820 census, but it appears that he and Catherine returned to Tennessee by 1812 when their first child was born. Their children were: Nancy E. (M7-11), Mary (M7-12), and William (M7-13). Catherine is listed as "dead" in the Nauvoo records. We have no record of William, Jr.'s death.

In March of 1827 William married Jane Ray in Tennessee. Jane was born in 1778 in Virginia. According to an 1832 divorce record, they lived in peace and harmony for two years. "Then she became discontented and dissatisfied and 'under the sinister influence and advice of her children by a former marriage' who wanted her to possess and enjoy the property he (William) owned she left and moved to North Carolina to her former friends and connections. She has now been gone two years." A little research into this matter indicates that Jane's first husband was a Ray. They had two children: Tyra B., who married Rankin McKee's daughter, Mary J. (M7-6); and a daughter Margaret Ellen, who married a Jamison. Jane's second husband was a Roundtree. They had two daughters: Margaret (Peggy) and Winifred. Margaret, a midwife, apparently never married and Winifred married James W. Clark.

In the 1850 census Jane, 72, was living in Orange County, North Carolina, with her daughters, Peggy, 37, and Winifred Rountreee, 22. In 1860 at age 82, she was living with Ellen Jamison, 57, and Margaret (Peggy) Roundtree, 47. In 1882 Ellen brought suit against her sisters asking for permission to go live with her brother, Tyra. The suit was dismissed at the cost of the plaintiff.

JAMES MCKEE M6-5

James was born about 1780, the fifth child of William McKee (M5-1) and Mary Rankin. His wife was named Elizabeth. James died in March 1823 in Orange County, North Carolina. He

JESSE MCKEE M6-18

Jesse was born in 1790 in Orange County, North Carolina, the tenth child of Alexander McKee (M5-2) and Mary Baahne. Jesse apparently stayed in North Carolina, since he and his cousin, Rankin McKee, made bond for the estate of Mary, wife of William, on 4 March 1832. Amy J. THE SEVENTH GENERATION

CHILDREN OF RANKIN MCKEE (M6-2) AND LYDIA RAY

Sally, as she was called, was born in 1809 in Orange County, North Carolina, the first child of Rankin McKee (M6-2) and Lydia Ray. She married John Woods. John died before September 1851. David died in Orange County, North Carolina, in 1871 based on estate papers filed by his son, Bedford (M8-1c), and his wife, Lucy. Lucy was not listed in the 1880 census.

WILLIAM A. MCKEE M7-3

William was born in 1818 in North Carolina, the third child of Rankin McKee (M6-2) and Lydia Ray. On 9 January 1838 he married Rachel Purdy Jordan in Orange County, North Carolina. at age 51 in the 1870 census of Little River, Orange County, North Carolina, with four of her children, Betsy, George, Joseph, and William. They were all missing in the 1880 census.

HORATIO NELSON MCKEE M7-4

Nelson, as he was called, was born in 1818 in Maury County, Tennessee, the fourth child of Rankin McKee (M6-2) and Lydia Ray. On 29 December 1841 he married Emily Roundtree in Maury County. Nelson is the only child of Rankin McKee listed as born in Tennessee. Rankin is found in North Carolina in both the the 1810 and 1820 census, but he could possibly have had a brief stay in Tennessee. I have assigned Nelson to this family based on his being one of the petitioners in the September 1851 court case of the estate of Rankin McKee. There is no Nelson McKee in any of the North Carolina census records through 1850.

JOHN R. MCKEE M7-5

John was born about 1819, the fifth child of Rankin McKee (M6-2) and Lydia Ray. He died in 1862 in Orange County, North Carolina, based on court papers filed by his administrator, William N. Allison, in February of that year.

Mary was born about 1821, the seventh child of Rankin McKee (M6-2) and Lydia Ray. She married Tyra B. Ray. (M8-32), born in 1842. Both girls were born in North Carolina. JOSEPH W. MCKEE M7-8

Joseph was born in 1823 in North Carolina, the eighth child of Rankin McKee (M6-2) and Lydia Ray. He married Eliza A. about 1845. Eliza was born in North Carolina in 1825, based on data of the 1850 census of Orange County. There was a Margaret Dickey, 23, in Joseph's household in the 1850 census, so it is probable that Eliza was also a Dickey. Joseph and Eliza had five children: Angelot (M8-33), Mary F. (M8-34), Charles R. (M8-35), William R. (M8-36), and Harriet E. (M8-37). Joseph died before 1882 in Orange County, North Carolina. N. Y. Harris was executor of his estate.

There is a discrepancy between his age as found in the 1850 census of Marshall County, Tennessee, and the death date of his mother based on the remarriage of his father. However he was living in the midst of McKnight families so it appears highly probable that he is the son of Catherine McKnight. William's wife was Mary, born in 1833 in Tennessee. This couple was not found in the 1860 census.
